Qualifications for Appointment to the Architectural Review Board

The City of Chamblee is currently accepting Statements of Interest from qualified individuals for positions on the Architectural Review Board (ARB).

The ARB reviews Developments of Community Impact, which include development or building projects with an aggregate of 20,000 square feet or more of new buildings or a site consisting of two acres or more. The ARB meets once per month, as needed, when new applications are received. Meetings are generally held on the first Tuesday of each month. ARB members must be residents, a business owner, or a property owner in the city, none of whom shall hold any other public office or position with the city. Desirable special qualifications of the members include an understanding of and skills in architectural design, landscape architecture, urban planning, zoning, land use, real estate development or engineering. Positions are volunteer and members are appointed to 2-year terms.

Interested individuals should submit an electronic version of this form, along with a resume to Matt Dickison, Planning & Development Director, mdickison@chambleega.gov. Alternatively, hard copies may be dropped off at the Development Department, 3506 Broad Street, Chamblee, GA 30341. The deadline to submit is November 30, 2018.
