—FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE—
CITY OF CHAMBLEE NAMES MOORE PUBLIC RELATIONS MANAGER

December 5, 2016—The City of Chamblee appointed Tisa Moore Public Relations Manager. Moore comes to the City most recently from Springmont School and previously from the Cities of Brookhaven and Sandy Springs, where she served as the Director of Marketing and Public Relations, Director of Communications and Community Engagement and Assistant Director of Media and Communications, respectively. She formerly was the Director of Public Relations for Woodward Academy.

“Tisa has vast media and public relations experience as well as ties to the area and surrounding communities. Additionally, she worked extensively in branding, crisis communications, web and digital communications and project management,” says Jon Walker, City Manager. “As we look toward the future and making Chamblee a preeminent destination for a sustainable mixed use environment, we feel that she will help us achieve our goals.”

“It’s my aim to advance the City’s mission by strengthening its awareness, engagement and support among our constituents,” Moore said. “It’s also vital to our success to provide proactive media and public relations and to showcase our talented people and engaging programs.”

Moore has won numerous awards and is a published author. She also is an alumna of Leadership Sandy Springs and Arts Leaders of Metro Atlanta, sits on the board of several non-profit groups and is involved in fundraising for numerous charitable organizations in the metro-Atlanta area.
